LABOR IS PASSING ON CANDIDATES; OAKLAND MAGNATE IN BOOZE NET

LABOR CLUB TO ACT TODAY ON CANDIDATES

The Union Labor Political club of Contra Costa county, scheduled to meet at Labor Temple this afternoon, probably will take formal and final action upon the recommendation of the committee named to investigate the records of the various candidates.

The recommendations were considered at a meeting of the committee last night, but the Record-Herald was informed that these recommendations would not be disclosed until and unless the club at its meeting this afternoon formally ratified the committee's action.

The committee who have for several days been investigating the candidates is composed of: C. B. Gads, Concord; L. C. Fline, Martinez; C. J. Campbell, Crockett; George Sear, W. C. Pulewider and Joseph Elchan, Richmond.

The campaign of Charles H. Ensign for the office of tax collector has been started in such a way, that nothing can stop it. It is gathering momentum every day, and already the letters he is receiving from different sections, asking for cards, and containing the further information that the parties are for him, is a strong indication of what the outcome of the contest will be.

Ensign has a legion of friends in Richmond, where he has resided for a number of years, and they are behind him to a man. In addition, the women are organizing and will aid him in making his fight.

Ensign is a union labor man, and it is safe to say that he will receive the united backing of the organizations with which he is affiliated.

Maccabees To San Francisco Monday

The past commanders and the commanders of the Women's Benefit Association of Maccabees of Central California will hold its quarterly meeting tomorrow in Redman Hall, 340 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco. All those planning to go from Richmond are asked to take the 7:59 a. m. car from Sixth and Macdonald, as the meeting will start at 10 o'clock sharp.

LEAVE FOR CLEAR LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. B. Erickson and Mr. and Mrs. C. Pfeil and children departed yesterday by auto for Clear Lake, Lake county, where they will spend a two-weeks' camping outing.

CHARLES C. MOORE

C. C. MOORE MEETING

Mayor E. J. Garrard, chairman. On the reception committee: Dr. Clark L. Abbott; E. M. Downer, president of the Mechanics' Bank; Mrs. Marie L. Ogden, city councilwoman; Mrs. E. A. Cole, vice-president of the Civic Center Club; W. H. Wood, chief of police; James P. Arnold, Ray B. Wheeler, E. L. Davis, C. C. Olney and Hutt Brown and others.

Charles C. Moore, of San Francisco, candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, will be the distinguished guest of the good people of Richmond, Monday morning at 9 o'clock, when he will appear and address the citizens touching his candidacy.

The meeting will be held at 9 o'clock, sharp, directly in front of the Elks' building, in Tenth street.

Mr. Moore has been making a tour of Southern California, where he has been speaking to large, thoughtful and enthusiastic audiences.

Conduct of P. P. I. E.

His conduct of the great Panama-Pacific International Exposition, of which he was president, brought him favorably into the limelight, and made him a figure conspicuous throughout the nation.

His successful management of his own private business has demonstrated his ability in the world of affairs.

Enters Horticulture

Recently he has entered the field of the producers of the world by purchasing and assuming active management of one of the biggest olive orchards in the Western world. He has been making effective speeches in his recent campaign, and has shown a logical and dependable grasp of the nation's needs and California's requirements.

Is Not a Politician

He is no sense of the word a politician, and does not employ the tactics of the spell-binder or the demagogue to catch popular fancy.

Richmond, noted for its unforced hospitality and for its adherence to a polite code of ethics, and believing in fair play to all candidates for public office, will do the proper and useful thing Monday morning. There therefore ought to be a big crowd out to hear Mr. Moore.

The hour is 9 o'clock. The place is in front of the Elks' building, Tenth street, just off Macdonald avenue.

WOMEN RALLY TO MRS. STIDHAM

Mrs. J. Winifred Stidham, candidate for the office of county superintendent of schools, who has been at the bedside of her sick daughter, at Fort Bragg, for the past week, is expected home this evening, and from now on, it is her intention to wage a very vigorous campaign.

Mrs. Stidham stands high in educational circles in the county, having taught in Richmond and Antioch, and holding life diplomas from the states of Indiana and California. The women of the county generally are rallying to her support, believing that Contra Costa should follow the example set by many of the most progressive counties of the state, and team up with the little place a woman at the head of her school system.

In every case where a woman who devotes her whole life to children, their education, and welfare has been inducted into office, she has made a wonderful record.

MAYOR GARRARD AND FAMILY RETURN HOME

Mayor and Mrs. E. J. Garrard and family returned home late yesterday afternoon, after spending their vacation at the Geysers.

"Kid" Davis Is Waking Up Voters

The "kid" candidate for assessor, Louis E. Davis, is it has been generally reported has been dubbed by the present occupant of the office, although he is much older than Mr. Moore, who he first took office sixteen years ago, and has had years of business experience, is making a campaign of the county that is more than pleasing to his many friends. The slogan of Davis is "efficiency and service" and it is appealing to the voters everywhere.

Visits Every Nook

There is not a nook of Contra Costa that Davis is not reaching into, and the offers of support that he is receiving, everywhere he goes, is more encouraging. Reports received from sections, which the present assessor considered his stronghold, show that organizations are being formed for Davis.

Westerly End Backs "Kid" In the western end of the county, where Davis was born and raised, the vote that he will get will be very large. The general sentiment here is that this section will back him solidly.

Time for Change

In nearly every town he visits strangers who have seen his picture, accost him on the street, introduce themselves by saying, "Mr. Davis, we are for you, we think it is time for a change."

With the major portion of the vote in the county between here and Port Costa, it is not hard to tell, the way the sentiment exists, concerning equal representation, who will be the next assessor.

Ex-Service Man

Davis is an ex-service man who served during the full period of the late war, acting in the capacity of captain of the Camp Lewis First Fighting Brigade, President of Richmond Parlor of Native Sons, a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Independent Order of Foresters, and an active member of the adjustment board of the Coal Dealers' Association.

Canary Birds, Pool Balls; Temperament

Three canary birds in gilded cages, prove one of the most pleasing recent additions to the attractions at the Elks' Club.

The little fellows are young and unaccustomed to their new surroundings, and their matins and vespers are a bit quiet and vague, but their pedigrees indicate that they have the qualities of Canary and Gallin-Cuckoo, and that by the time of November they will be full-fledged stellar performers.

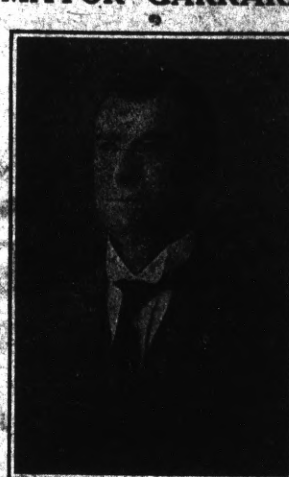

The cracking of the pool and billiard balls jar their aesthetic sensibilities at present.

And the tones of music that drift in from the radio and maganovox set by many of the most progressive counties of the state, and team up with the little place a woman at the head of her school system.

You know canaries are highly temperamental. Indeed, if crossed early in the day, they scorn to eat the seeds, and from their little head-like eyes fall fiery glances that almost burn up the fish bone which they spurn till peace is made with their keepers.

But the Elks will deal gently with the feathered songsters, and pretty soon they'll be the joy, the pride and the envy of the Richmond Elks' Club.

MAYOR GARRARD

The Chief Magistrate of the City of Richmond will act as master of ceremonies when C. C. Moore launches his campaign here Monday morning.

FRANK SCHOLLES GETS BACK IN MOTOR GAME

"I am happy to be back in the automobile game," said Frank A. Scholles last night as he sat easily at the wheel of a Nash sedan, and commented on his re-purchase of the automobile business which he sold out to Charles F. and Louis Freese some months ago.

Scholles took a month's vacation which he employed in touring Southern California, and touching a few bright spots in Old Mexico with his family, and upon his return to Richmond engaged in the real estate business.

But his heart kept longing for automobile row, and the smell of the gas and the "feel" of the upholstery, and while he was putting it over in selling Richmond dirt, it was evident that he was like a man who had got back into the fold after "taking a flyer" in some other field.

Scholles will continue to handle the Nash and Overland cars, having built up an enviable clientele in those two well-known lines.

He retains "Bill" Jenkins, popular Elks, as sales manager.

The Freeses have not announced what lines of business they will enter.

MARY J. SORIA SEEKS DIVORCE

Martinez, July 28.—Claiming that he has received letters from women expressing their affection for her husband and asking that she divorce him, Mary J. Soria, of Richmond, filed suit for divorce against Francis L. Soria. Mrs. Soria's complaint, however, indicates that her divorce plea is not the result of the urge of women rivals for her husband.

Her complaint charges that her husband frequently kept the company of other women and that once when she remonstrated with him he told her that he "would shoot her full of holes." On one occasion, she alleges, when she returned to the Washington Hotel, San Francisco, after attending a theater party with a lady friend, her husband reproached her and beat her, forcing her to call aid for protection. The couple married in 1915, and have one child whose custody Mrs. Soria asks. She asserts her husband earns $250 monthly and asks $75 a month as alimony. The suit was filed through Attorneys Pierce & Carlson.

Miss Ethel Northcott Married To M. Kelly

Miss Ethel Northcott and Marvin Kelly, popular young couple of Richmond, went to Oakland Friday evening and were quietly married by a minister of one of the Christian churches of that city. Their attendants were Miss Laura Egan and Elmer Wright.

They have taken apartments in the Yeager Apartments, where they will be at home to their friends.

The bride is a native of Stockton, and is the daughter of Mrs. M. Northcott. She has been employed by Fred B. Lathrop, druggist, and has a large number of friends in the city whom she has won by an appealing personality and held by an enviable charm.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Kelly, of this city. He is an alumnus of Richmond Union High school, and has a host of friends in the city. He is a machinist employed by the Santa Fe Coast Lines here.

A. HOEFFER BUYS PARTNER OUT

Albert Hoefler is now sole owner of the Popular Bakery and Restaurant at 417 Macdonald avenue.

He has just closed the deal whereby he buys out the entire interests of his partner, August Schumacher.

The business will be operated on the same lines as heretofore.

Mr. Schumacher will take a long vacation, having left this week for Yosemite Valley. His plans for the future he has not disclosed.

Hoefler and Schumacher have been partners in the business here for eleven years, and really are pioneers in the restaurant and bakery business in Richmond.

Hoefler is married and has children in school here, and says he hopes to put in many more years serving the good people of Richmond.

Cubs Will Mix It Today With Crockett Team

The Richmond Cubs will travel to Crockett this afternoon where they will play a return game with the fast Community Center team. The Cubs recently plastered a 10 to 4 beating on the boys from the sugar town and expect to duplicate the feat today. Davidson or Muth will occupy the mound, with Husefka behind the log.

The Cubs' second team will meet the West Berkeley Athletic Club this afternoon at the Twenty-third street grounds. "Lefty" Murray or O'Brien will be in the box for the Cubs, while White or Myatt will catch. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock.

TRIP TO TANOR

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kallman and Al Abraham are back from a several weeks' vacation trip to Lake Tahoe and Donner Lake.

BERCOVICH IS CHARGED WITH BOOTLEGGING

Choice liquors and rare wines valued at more than $100,000 were seized yesterday by Oakland police and a federal prohibition agent in a raid on the home of William Bercovich, wealthy tobacco merchant and chairman, at 490 Grand avenue, Oakland, in the fashionable lake district.

Bercovich was arrested on charges of violating the national prohibition act by selling liquor and having it in his possession illegally.

Arraigned before Albert M. Harlan, United States commissioner, in Oakland, he was released on $1,000 cash pending his preliminary hearing on August 10. He said the seized liquor was owned by relatives.

According to the police, Bercovich has been selling booze in his various cigar stores in San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and other cities. He is also declared to have been supplying liquor to a hotel.

Trapped in Hotel The raid came as a climax to his arrest after he had been trapped, police say, in selling a bottle of whiskey to a prohibition agent at his class stand in the Hotel Oakland.

In the custody of three Oakland policemen and a federal agent was taken to his home, where the private stock was confiscated.

MARY HUSEFKA WEDS GEO. MINO

According to information which has just been disclosed, George Minno, druggist in Sneed's Drug Store, and Miss Mary Husefka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Husefka, 1915 Clinton avenue, were quietly married in Ukiah on Monday, July 17. The wedding was kept secret for some time, but upon their return from their honeymoon at Vichy Springs the news came out.

The bride is a graduate of the Crockett high school and has been employed as stenographer by the Standard Oil Company. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Richmond high school and of the University of California. He has been a druggist in San Francisco and for the past six months at Sneed's. They are domiciled at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Mino, 447 Fifteenth street.

Richmond Club Scene of Dance

Richmond Clubhouse was the scene of one of the most gay and colorful events of the year last evening when the First National Bank baseball team entertained with a dancing party. The ball room was thronged with a large number of dance lovers, and was prettily decorated in a blue and white color scheme. A number of painted baseballs arranged about the ballroom gave a pleasing effect, while a number of blue-shaded lamps gave a soft glow to the ballroom.

The music was dispensed in a complete manner by Shaw's infatigable orchestra.

Al Wilson was in charge of the decorations, while the committee in charge of the other arrangements consisted of: Wally Kruger, chairman; assisted by Cleland Williams, Dick Austin and Eddie Reed.

TITLE WORSHIPPERS

A foreign critic declares that Americans "are still dazzled by titles." They "look on London as the great social center of the world, and are happy to shake hands with a Baronet, delighted to greet a Lord and enraptured to meet a Duke."

Undoubtedly there's some truth in his accusation, although his language seems a trifle strong.

It must be admitted, however, that there are titles and titles. If it ever came to a popularity contest between the titles of Lord, Baronet, or Duke and the titles of Home Run King, World's Champion Boxer, Golfer, Tennis Star or Oarsman, the citizens of these much-discussed United States of America would cast their votes, practically to the hilt, for the titles which represent skill and fame in the realm of sport rather than those of social value.

ROLLER-SKATING, SMOOTH

"Keep Our Roads Roller-Skating Smooth," would not be a bad national slogan. An important bit of paving was completed in a northern Ohio village recently. The citizens celebrated the opening of the road with appropriate ceremonies in which roller skating races were the big feature. There could hardly be a test better calculated to show the condition of a pavement, effectively, and the excitement of the spectators. How much more interesting and vital would be a similar test made after a few months, or a series of such tests made at regular intervals over a period of years.

It is a great thing to open a new highway, roller-skating smooth, with all that it means in swift transportation, neighborly intercourse and easy communication with the rest of the world. The only pity is that knowing how a good road surface promotes these things, the tendency persists to let the roads deteriorate so swiftly.

WASH THE CAN!

There is one gospel which spreads with surprising slowness, considering its importance. It is the one which urges that all empty food containers of glass or tin be washed before they are thrown upon the rubbish heap.

Many a woman who washes and disinfects her garbage can as thoroughly as she washes her dishes, and many a man who would not tolerate a scrap of paper or an old bone on the lawn, will throw away a can from which meats, fish, vegetables or fruits have been taken but leave part of the contents sticking to the sides. So long as this continues the battle against flies, rodents, evil odors and disease will proceed but slowly.

A pile of clean cans may be unsightly, and even this is unnecessary if a little thought is given to disposal, but it will be nothing more than an offense to the eye. Let those same cans be decorated with particles of decomposing food and the pile becomes an offense to eye, nose and health. It may seem like a small matter, but no amount of front door grace will make up for the bad housekeeping which neglects this simple fact of sanitation.

STANDARDIZED TRAFFIC RULES

A move is on foot in one of the big cities to standardize traffic regulations and signals for itself and its suburbs. It is a plan which could be extended throughout the country with benefit to every body.

In almost every community there is confusion in such matters both as regards conception and less frequent thoroughness. The result is that persons thoroughly conversant with regulations in one district may be all wrong in another without the least intention to menace or offend, while the apprehension of the intentional offender is more complicated.

The same situation exists to a greater degree between separate communities. Standardization is the answer. Nor is it necessary to have an infinite variety of rules to cover the situation adequately. A few fundamental principles, generally learned, commonly practiced and applicable everywhere will simplify the whole safety problem, local and national.

The announcement that the American Central Committee for Relief in Russia was about to dissolve and to turn its remaining supplies and funds to other agencies doing relief work does not mean that starvation is over in Russia.

There is still great suffering in Europe and great need for continued distribution of food and medicine. But the people of the United States appear to have lost interest in Russian or other European relief and are no longer supporting the work of the committee. Members of the relief administration believe that some of the charitable organizations nearer to the unfortunate areas are fully qualified by proximity, interest and sympathy to carry on the work wisely and efficiently, and that it is a good thing to turn over to them the small surplus of $65,228.

It is not pleasant to think of America, deserting those European sufferers while their need still exists. Yet it is better, perhaps, to withdraw entirely than to continue work handicapped by short funds and lack of other support. Efforts made under such conditions would be less efficient and less certain of success than formerly.

The withdrawal of official American relief need not mean the withdrawal of all American sympathy and help. It will undoubtedly be possible for individuals to continue to share in necessary aid through safe and suitable channels.

THE INVESTIGATING COMMISSION

The prospect of a commission to study all phases of the coal industry grows stronger. Through its president, A. M. Ogle, the National Coal Association urges the President to appoint a "fact-finding, non-partisan body, and a resolution has been introduced in the Senate looking to the same end. This is in line with President Harding's ideas. It is to be hoped that, when appointed, the commission will make such discoveries and suggest such remedies as may reveal the basic troubles in the industry and provide for their final eradication.

After appointing and the recommending all are done, the next little thing will be to make both parties abide by the findings and decisions. There have been in the past, and are in existence now, too many official and unofficial settlements of the contracts which they enter into, and use constructive machinery which they set up for themselves or demand that others shall set up for them.

TONICS FOR PALE TREES

Fruit trees with pale leaves, like children with pale cheeks are suffering from undernourishment—malnutrition. The children need more vitamins, the trees more nitrogen. So important a part do the nitrates play in the life of trees and the development of fruit that experts warn the grower who wants large crops, fine fruits and high prices to see that his charges get their tonic in time.

Part of this nitrogenous diet may be supplied by the use of ordinary manure early in the spring, but at any time during the season when it is noted that the foliage is turning pale green or yellow a dose of the commercial nitrates is indicated. The New Jersey Agricultural experiment station suggests for an average apple soil an application of from 150 to 200 pounds of nitrate of soda and 400 to 500 pounds of acid phosphate per acre, with an additional dose of 100 pounds per acre of muriate of sulphate or potash for very light soils.

eternal vigilance in such matters is the price of a healthy farm, and the farmer of the present day is fortunate in having the county, state and national agricultural organizations to provide him with a suitable diet list for his fields and orchards. The farmer of a former generation just had to go it blind, trying first one thing and then another, until it was no wonder the old farm was frequently allowed to run down from sheer discouragement.

Ireland may be a "little bit of heaven," but the difficulty is to get the celestial denizens to accept both the crown and the harp.

The coal strike is mostly a question of mine and mine and mine.

About Battery Life Insurance
The wording of a battery life insurance policy may sound pretty good, but you can be sure it isn't a bit better than the company back of it.

The great strength of Willard Battery Insurance is in the reputation of the Willard Storage Battery Company for building the right kind of product, and then backing that product by the right kind of policies, and the right sort of an organization.

Our service is the Willard Standard in every particular, and that means caring for all makes of batteries alike, and giving all owners the same prompt courteous service.

Little after eight in the morning Grammont drove into the city. He noticed that two large groups were standing in front of the police station, and that about him a group of men who eyed him with some interest. Paying attention to these, he drove on, but the town without a halt.

He went on to an opening in the fence, where the low rail fence, which was a view of the Humberts' place, he paused, quickly looking back, and gained a point whence he could see without danger of his being discovered. He settled himself and watched.

Grammont was fairly certain. He saw the car, Grammont took his eye toward the bank of the bayou and saw this in the direction of the coming property.

He went on to an opening in the fence, where the low rail fence, which was a view of the Humberts' place, he paused, quickly looking back, and gained a point whence he could see without danger of his being discovered. He settled himself and watched.

A GOOD THING TO KNOW.
Foley Cathartic Tablets are genuinely wholesome physic—an admirable laxative. They keep the system clean and fine, purged of poisons and resist disease. Miss J. Hunter, 123
Stedman St., N. S., Pittsburg, Pa.,
writes: "I cannot praise Foley's Cathartic Tablets too highly for what they have done for me." They banish constipation, bloating, gas, headache, sour stomach and other ills caused by indigestion. Make fat people feel lighter and freer.

Crowd Loke Record Last Night at Fet Theater

The biggest, happiest house of their fortnight's engagement greeted the actors at Jennings' tent theater last night to witness "The Foxy Bachelor," a farce comedy in four acts which furnished merriment and laughter continuous.

In fact, the week-end reception accorded the tent theater was so cordial and so spontaneous that a nomenclature is made that the theater will continue here all this week.

Tonight's bill is "Traffic in Souls," a melodrama in four acts which deals with the seamy side of life and the battle for the immortal phases of humanity. There is romance a-plenty, and the sordid elements of life are dealt with in a sharply stenciled manner.

Monday evening "Her Cowboy Visitor" will be the attraction.

Edith Roberts Star Heading Bill At The Macdonald

Edith Roberts will be the attraction at the Macdonald theater this evening in "Thunder Island," her most recent Universal photodrama, in which she again has an exotic and colorful role in another one of Norman Dawn's Universal hot-tamaleos of delegates to attend the annual convention of the American Bar Association.

The origin of "Thunder Island" was Beatrice Grimshaw's clever story, "My Lady of the Island," a tale of the South Seas, but Norman Dawn stirred the dramatic punch into a Mexican cocktail, added a jolt of the basco sauce and established the revolutionists' rifle-range of the Gulf of Lower California.

Miss Roberts appears as a little shepherdess who is content to watch her flocks on the sun-washed slopes above the gulf, until her marriage to a dying old don of countless dollars complicates the story and starts things moving faster than a Mexican election.

Jack O'Brien, six feet three in his pajamas and a clever actor, plays opposite the star. Arthur Jasmine, who has proven his histrionic ability in previous successes with Miss Roberts, has a delightfully humorous character role as a somewhat cuckoo young simp, while Fred De Silva, the mildest mannered screen villain that ever cut a throat, has the "heavy" role.

Playgoers who line up for "Thunder Island" are promised five reels of Edith Roberts at her best, the most artistic work of Norman Dawn, thrills to seep "Fire Cat" and a story that fairly sizzles with fast action and tangles the cookies of honeymoon hearts.

Other attractions on the Sunday bill are "Thunderbolt Jack," Hoxie in a serial; Bob Reames in a bright Western reel, called "No Man's Gold"; Snub Pollard favorite comedian in "Hale and Hearty," and Gump Cartoon.

The usual Sunday matinee.

"Love Never Dies" Heads Bill Today At T. & D. Theatre

Kinkaid and Kinkaid presenting "Love Never Dies" described as a ventriloquist's oddity for which they carry special scenery will be included among the five big acts that comprise the new vaudeville bill booked to open at the T. & D. theater, today. These artists have been a great hit in every house along the circuit and their material is the sort that is described as a sure-fire. The Leslie girls will present "Singing and Musical Revue," that is a gem of its kind and one that has been exceedingly popular. Thompson and Berri Trio have a "New Brand of Fun" that they entitle "Patent Applied For." It is packed with laughs and should prove a great favorite. Edgo and Paula, this is another laugh-producer that never fails to register. It is acted with clever skill and the material is new and clever. Sonia and her escorts in a "European Athletic Novelty," comprising many new feats of thrilling interest.

Eugene O'Brien in "Chivalrous Charley" is the film feature of the bill.

NEW YORKER VISITOR IN MIRA VISTA HEIGHTS

LAWYERS WILL GATHER IN S. F.

Three special Southern Pacific trains, due to arrive in San Francisco August 3 at 7:50 a.m., will bring 800 delegates to attend the annual convention of the American Bar Association.

C. L. McPaul, general agent of the Southern Pacific at Chicago, will be in charge of the big party.

Vice President Calvin Coolidge and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court William Taft are scheduled to address the convention.

Two of the special trains will take the delegates East via Portland, Ore. The convention will open August 8 for a four days' session.

From August 2 to 8, inclusive, there will be held at Native Sons' Hall an important convention, that of the Commissioners for Uniform State Laws, the delegates to which will remain in the city for the American Bar Association's gathering.

Eastern delegates to the commissioners' convention left Chicago July 22, and their itinerary includes a stay of several days at Tahoe. They will arrive in San Francisco August 1 at 7:50 a.m.

WHOM

Do You Think of When You Think of a Car?

When you are thinking about the new car you expect to buy, it's well worth while to think a little of the three people who are most interested in that car.

There is yourself who will pay the bill and drive the car. There is the man who made it. And there is the man who sells it to you.

After you get the car, the whole proposition is up to you and the man who sold the car to you. As long as you drive the car, his interest in your satisfaction should be constant and friendly. He should always be ready to supply whatever you and the car may require. He should be an ever-present guarantee of your satisfaction in ownership.

We run this business so that our patrons and their friends think of us in that light.

My stomach, kidney and liver were in bad condition. The lower part of my body pained me awfully. I could hardly lie on either side and sleep. My bowels were hard to move and painful. I treated with other doctors and medicines, but did not seem to do me much good. After taking six weeks' Kong Wah Herbs I feel like a new woman. No more stomach, kidney and liver trouble.
